

PCSS November 2009 Newsletter

The leaves are down, the mornings are crisp. It's holiday time in Virginia's Highlands! The Salvation Army's bells began ringing on Monday and we would like to ask our customers to please support the kettle when you see it. The needs are truly great this season.

Windows 7 has arrived! PCSS has loaded Windows 7 Ultimate on our Lenovo laptop (Intel Core 2 Duo 1.6GHz processor, 2GB memory) and it is running OK. We will be updating information on the PCSS Blog.

Tip of the month is that the rash of Malware our customers have been seeing can be traced back to updating Flash Player. If you get the message that you need to upgrade your Flash Player DO NOT CLICK ON THE LINK! Go here instead and see if you really need to upgrade Flash Player: Adobe - Adobe Flash Player

Thinking about a technology Christmas gift? PCSS Sells netbooks, notebooks, PCs, monitors, printers and lots of fun accessories. Check out the sales below. PCSS will not have much inventory by the middle of December so get your order in early!
